"The Invisible World Government AND The Truth And Lies Of London 7/7"

A detailed and thoroughly thought provoking presentation from Tony Gosling

■ Tony is a big venue speaker coming all the way from Bristol. He will be examining the lies and propaganda in the BBC Conspiracy Files "7/7: The London Bombings" scheduled to be to be screened on BBC2 at the end of June, which will no doubt be a complete whitewash.

■ He will also be giving mind expanding details about "The Invisible World Government". Since the First World War an ambitious project has been put in place for the world to be governed from behind the scenes. Weak national leaders have increasingly distanced themselves from parliaments and handed power over to totalitarian colonial groups the public, and often the press too, have never heard of. The end result is a rudderless media and national & government policies that work against the interests or desires of ordinary people, and all in the name of democracy! But all is not lost. A wave of resistance and awareness of the new Global Agenda is sweeping the world and the plans of the NeoCon madmen are going awry. Essential suppressed information.

"The Brow Chakra: The Process Of Ascension"

Another mind expanding presentation by the extraordinary David Boyle

This is the sixth "Stand Alone" talk in the "Seven Steps To Heaven" series which explains the unexplained and where the paranormal becomes the normal. The sixth initiation begins the process of ascension which is concluded at the end of the seventh initiation. From a broader perspective, the process of ascension begins with the start of the probationary path, and continues into vast and almost unfathomable cosmic realms. At the sixth initiation, one is considered a kindergarten ascended master, and on the seventh a fully fledged ascended master. On the sixth initiation the initiate and the monad merge directly. One then knows that they are the almighty I AM presence or God. One sees everything as whole, experiencing Joy, Unconditional love, divine, and peace. Even though the merge is as one, we still are the individual, working collectively for the good of all. To reach the sixth, we have had to work on all our other initiations, and clear out all the negative ego, beliefs and Karma. All of which have been explained in the previous five steps. Not to be missed.

"The Five Elements Of Positive Energy"

A welcome return by "The Secret Law Of Attraction" coach Grace Brown

You may remember that Grace did an inspiring presentation of "The Secret Law Of Attraction" on 9th February 2009. She's now back by popular demand sharing her inspiring knowledge. The five elements are known as the Five Phases and everything in existence contains some quantity of all five elements. However, one of the five so particularly predominates or manifests itself in each thing. Each element has special associations with particular organs in the human body as well as to other things such as colours, flavours, the time of day, the season of the year, and the way we respond physically and emotionally to external influences and all of the forces of nature. The Five Elements theory identifies the five different modes (elements) in which Chi energy may manifest it. The five (Wood, Fire, Earth, Metal and Water) are arranged into a cyclical sequence that represents the flow of energy between these elements as 'phases' and other beings. Should be another inspiring evening in the company of the delightful Grace Brown.

"State Of The Nation: Why Doesn't Anything Work Anymore!" -

A challenging and thought provoking presentation from Brian Gerrish

Since Brian was last here in November 2008 there is now a lot more to report on the machinations of the pro EU political "Charity" Common Purpose. Brian Gerrish updates us on the perilous state of Great Britain, now deliberately being dismantled from within. Brian explains how the UK is being destroyed from the inside, by means of "Change Agents" and a "cuckoo" of a "Political Third Sector" - now containing over 170,000 "charities" and 1,300 government departments. He also provides more evidence on the political activities of "Common Purpose". He has given talks throughout UK on the subject of "The Subversive attack on UK Society" and continues to work alongside good people from all parties, and no party, to expose the imminent and dangerous Fifth-column threat to UK democracy and personal freedoms. Essential information.
